POPE ACCEPTS INVITATION TO

NEW DELHI, India (AP)-Pope Paul VI has accepted an invitation to visit India for his second break with the tradition against papal travel abroad, officials said Tuesday night.

The Pope will make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land Jan. 4-6, ending a period of 150 years in which papal travel has been restricted to Italy.

Officials at the Vatican declined to confirm the report, but Vatican circles said there was a good chance Pope Paul might attend the International Eucharistic Congress in Bombay next November.

YOURS WILL ARRIVE ON JANUARY 2

PROBABLY the world's most priceless gift. Yet it won't cost you a cent. Just one requirement. You have to be present (in the flesh) on January 2.

Since there is a limited supply of these very valuable gifts, the following people are not eligible. (They won't be around on January 2, anyway.)

The Reckless Ones, who don't pay any attention to traffic laws. The Foolish Ones, who don't allow themselves enough time to complete their trip safely. The Careless Ones, who ignore road, weather and traffic conditions. The Childish Ones, who can't keep their minds on their driwing. And the Crazy Ones, who mix drinking and driving.

Stay away from them. Any one of them can keep you from making that all-important appearance on January 2. Any one of them can kill your chances of receiving that very valuable gift-your life.

The holidays bring out the best in people—and holiday driving brings out the worst. So, to keep your date with life on January 2, be on the alert for the careless, the reckless, the foolish, the crazy and the childish.

Don't let them cross you off the gift list.

JOHNSON GETS CROSSWORD - - - By Eugene Sheffer FIRST SETBACK ON FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON (AP) foreign aid battle has cost President Johnson his first setback on Capitol Hill since becoming chief executive and with stinging criticism of Congress he looked hopefully to the Senate to recapture some of the losses.

The House dealt the administration a double jolt Monday. upholding an $800-million cut in foreign aid appropriations and adding a surprise amendment prohibiting the government from guaranteeing private financing of wheat sales to the Communist bloc

It added up to another obstacle in the path of the battered aid measure and there seemed to be a good chance that final passage would have to be put off until next year. "WEAKNESS AND RETREAT"

As the House was voting 249-135 to hold spending for economic and military assistance to $2.8 billion—$1.7 billion below what the late President John F. Kennedy requested - Johnson issued a sharply worded state-

Johnson used as a vehicle for his criticism the foreign aid authorization bill which puts restrictions on the program and fixes a spending ceiling of $3.6 billion.

In his statement after signing the measure, Johnson made clear that he considers $3.6 billion "a dangerous reduction in funds" and that anything less would represent "a policy of weakness and retreat.'

In words similar to those once spoken by his predecessor, Johnson said tartly "we cannot oppose the spread of communism and promote the growth of freedom by giving speeches."

The authorization measure, he he said, reflects the nation's determination to maintain security by helping those willing to help themselves. But he added:

"It also reflects, unfortunately, the growing tendency to hamstring executive flexibility with rigid legislative provisions wholly inappropriate and potentially dangerous in a world of rapid change."

U.S. and American negotiations for the sale of about 4 million tons of U.S. wheat have been hung up on the question of shipping rates. In approving the proposed sale Oct 9, Kennedy had added a requirement that the wheat be carried on U.S. ships when available. Russians have objected to the higher U.S. shipping rates.

The House amendment, designed to throw a monkey wrench into the wheat deal, was adopted by a 218-169 vote when offered by Rep. Paul Findlay, R-Ill.
